

Charter of the Mentoring Program of EPFL Alumni

To ensure successful mentoring relationships the participants shall follow some fundamental principles.

Foundation

- A mentor relationship is a voluntary engagement of both the mentor and mentee.
- The program has no predefined time line. Each participant can ask to end the relationship if he/she feels it doesn't meet his/her expectations. The other party as well as EPFL Alumni will have to be duly notified.
- The EPFL Alumni is responsible to pair the mentor and the mentee. There is no entitlement to change a mentor or mentee position nor a right to choose a mentor or mentee.
- The EPFL Alumni reserves the right, without giving any reasons, to turn down applications to the mentoring program, or to exclude applicants from the mentoring program at a later date.

Participants' engagement

- Participants create a relationship based on mutual trust and respect.
- Participants treat personal information provided by the participating parties with complete confidentiality and not to disclose this information to any third parties.
- All activities take place without any remuneration.
- The students agree to follow the mentoring program has been agreed with their mentor and participate in each of the meetings that have been planned.
- Students undertake to make the necessary efforts to advance their reflections between meetings with their mentor.
- Students are requested to set up the meetings (or calls) with their mentors.
- Participants agree to provide feedback to EPFL Alumni...
